  - (iii) election of members to;

- A. the House Committee;
  - B. the Finance Committee; and
  - C. the Social Committee.
- (b) If there is no nomination for a position, the chair of the meeting may call for nominations from the members at the meeting.
- (c) If only one member has nominated for a position, the chair of the meeting must declare the member elected to the position.
- (d) If more than one member has nominated for a position, the members entitled to vote in the election must vote in accordance with procedures that have been determined by the Management Committee to decide who is to be elected to the position.
- (e) Subject to the rules, members entitled to vote in the election are:
- (i) members in a class of membership that confers full voting rights; and
  - (ii) any member, although not in a class of membership that confers full voting rights, who has nominated for the position for which the election is held.
- (f) Members who have nominated for a position may vote for themselves.

41. Term of office

- (a) The term of office of an elected standing committee member begins when the member —
- (i) is elected at an annual general meeting or under by-law 42(c)(ii); or
  - (ii) is appointed to fill a casual vacancy under by-law 44.
- (b) Subject to by-law 42, an elected standing committee member holds office until the positions on the committee are declared vacant at the next annual general meeting.
- (c) An elected standing committee member may be re-elected.

42. Resignation and removal from a standing committee

- (a) A standing committee member may resign from the committee by written notice given to the secretary or the Commodore.
- (b) The resignation takes effect —
- (i) when the notice is received by the secretary or the Commodore; or
  - (ii) if a later time is stated in the notice, at the later time.
- (c) At a general meeting, the Club may by resolution —
- (i) remove an elected committee member from the committee; and
  - (ii) elect a member who is eligible under by-law 38 to fill the vacant position.
- (d) A standing committee member who is the subject of a proposed resolution under subparagraph (c)(i) may make written representations of a reasonable length to the secretary or the Commodore and may ask that the representations be provided to the members.

- (e) The secretary or the Commodore may give a copy of the representations to each member or, if they are not so given, the standing committee member may require them to be read out at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be considered.

43. When elected membership of a standing committee ceases

- (a) A person ceases to be an elected standing committee member if the person —
  - (i) dies or otherwise ceases to be a member; or
  - (ii) resigns from the committee or is removed from office under by-law 42(c)(i); or
  - (iii) becomes permanently unable to act as a committee member because of a mental or physical disability; or
  - (iv) fails to attend 3 consecutive committee meetings, of which the person has been given notice, unless —
    - A. the person provides to the Management Committee a written explanation of the failure to attend; and
    - B. the Management Committee accepts the explanation.
- (b) The Management Committee must consider an explanation referred to in sub-paragraph (a)(iv)A at its scheduled meeting immediately following receipt of the explanation.

44. Filling casual vacancies

- (a) The Management Committee may appoint a member who is eligible under by-law 38 to fill a position on a standing committee that —
  - (i) has become vacant under by-law 43; or
  - (ii) was not filled by election at the most recent annual general meeting or under by-law 42(c).
- (b) Subject to the requirement for a quorum under by-law 50, a standing committee may continue to act despite any vacancy in its membership.

Division 3 — Committees other than standing committees

45. Other committees

- (a) The Management Committee may appoint committees other than the standing committees.
- (b) The Management Committee must determine the membership, procedure (which may be left to the discretion of the committee) and terms of reference of a committee appointed under this by-law 45.
- (c) The quorum for a committee appointed under this by-law 45 must be at least half of the members of that committee.

Division 4— General

46. Validity of acts

- (a) A member elected or appointed to a committee is entitled to vote on that committee notwithstanding that the member is not in a class of membership that confers full voting rights.
- (b) The acts of a committee, or of a committee member, are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the election, appointment or qualification of a committee member.

47. Payments to committee members

With the prior approval of the Management Committee and at the Management Committee's absolute discretion, a committee member may be paid out of the funds of the Club for any out-of-pocket expenses for travel and accommodation properly incurred —

- (a) in attending a committee meeting; or
- (b) otherwise in connection with the Club's business.

Division 5 — Committee meetings

48. Committee meetings

- (a) The Management Committee must meet at least once in each month except the month of January.
- (b) Except in the case of a meeting the business of which is determined by the Commodore to be urgent, the notice of each meeting of the Management Committee must include an agenda, minutes of the previous meeting, current financial information and any material documentation relating to the agenda items.
- (c) Each of the Sailing Committee, the House Committee and the Pen Committee must meet once in each month except the month of December.
- (d) The Finance Committee must meet at least 3 times in each financial year, and the Social Committee must meet at least 4 times in each financial year.
- (e) The date, time and place of the first meeting of each standing committee must be determined by the members of that committee as soon as practicable after the annual general meeting at which the elected committee members are elected.

49. Procedure and order of business

- (a) One of the Flag Officers must preside as chair of each standing committee meeting other than the Social Committee.
- (b) The nominee of the Management Committee must preside as chair of meetings of the Social Committee, and may attend the next meeting of the Management Committee to represent the views of the Social Committee.
- (c) If a Flag Officer or the nominee of the Management Committee is absent or is unwilling to act as chair of a meeting —
  - (i) the members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chair of the meeting; and

- (ii) the chair of the meeting must attend the next meeting of the Management Committee to represent the views of the standing committee.
- (d) The procedure to be followed at a standing committee meeting must be determined from time to time by the committee.
- (e) The order of business at a standing committee meeting may be determined by the committee members at the meeting.
- (f) A member or other person who is not a standing committee member may attend a committee meeting if invited to do so by the committee.
- (g) A person invited under paragraph (f) to attend a standing committee meeting —
  - (i) has no right to any agenda, minutes or other document circulated at the meeting; and
  - (ii) must not comment about any matter discussed at the meeting unless invited by the committee to do so; and
  - (iii) cannot vote on any matter that is to be decided at the meeting; and
  - (iv) must preserve strict confidence in relation to all matters discussed at the meeting except to the extent that confidentiality is dispensed with by the committee in relation to any particular matter or matters.

50. Quorum for standing committee meetings

- (a) The quorum for meetings of each standing committee is half the number of members of the committee, or three members, whichever is the greater.
- (b) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a standing committee meeting, the meeting is adjourned to the same time, day and place in the following week.

51. Voting at standing committee meetings

- (a) Each member present at a standing committee meeting has one vote on any question arising at the meeting.
- (b) A motion is carried if a majority of the members present at the meeting vote in favour of the motion.
- (c) If the votes are divided equally on a question, the chair of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- (d) A vote may take place by the members present indicating their agreement or disagreement verbally or by a show of hands, unless the members decide that a secret ballot is needed to determine a particular question.
- (e) If a secret ballot is needed, the chair of the meeting must decide how the ballot is to be conducted.

52. Minutes of standing committee meetings

- (a) Each standing committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each meeting.
- (b) The minutes must record the following —

- (i) the names of the members present at the meeting; and
  - (ii) the name of any person attending the meeting under by-law 49(f); and
  - (iii) the business considered at the meeting; and
  - (iv) any motion on which a vote is taken at the meeting and the result of the vote.
- (c) Each standing committee must provide to the Management Committee the minutes of each committee meeting.

PART 5 — GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE CLUB

53. Annual general meetings

- (a) The annual general meeting must be held on a date in the last 7 days of August of each year.
- (b) A general meeting must be held on a date in the last 7 days of February of each year.
- (c) Other general meetings, not being special general meetings, may be held as the Management Committee determines.
- (d) Special general meetings must be convened as provided for in the rules.
- (e) The business of the February meeting is to receive and if thought fit adopt the half yearly written reports of the Commodore, the Management Committee and the secretary, and to transact general business.
- (f) The business of any general meeting other than the annual general meeting and the February meeting is to transact the business for which the meeting is called and any general business.
- (g) The business of any special general meeting is to transact only the business for which the meeting is called.

PART 6 — PENS

54. Pens

- (a) Subject to paragraph (b), only Ordinary Members and Honorary Life Members may lease or rent a pen.
- (b) The Management Committee may arrange for rental or lease of a pen to a member other than an Ordinary Member or an Honorary Life Member, or to a non-member, provided that —
  - (i) the rent or lease period does not exceed 3 months; and
  - (ii) the rental or leasing rate is the current rental or leasing rate plus a percentage determined by the Management Committee after considering the recommendation of the Pen Committee.
- (c) All arrangements for leasing or renting a pen must be by written agreement between the lessee or rentee and the Club.

- (d) All pen lessees or rentees must abide by the regulations and instructions for pen usage established by the Management Committee after considering the recommendations of the Pen Committee.
- (e) In allocating pens for lease or rent, the Management Committee must —
  - (i) give preference to lessees or rentees who intend to make use of the pen; and
  - (ii) endeavour to maintain an equal balance of sailing and power craft.

PART 7 — GENERAL MATTERS

55. Audit of financial report

- (a) The financial report for each financial year must be audited in accordance with Part 5 of the Act.
- (b) Unless an auditor has been appointed by resolution of the members at a general meeting, the Management Committee must appoint an auditor for each financial year.

56. Club noticeboard

- (a) The Management Committee must maintain a notice board in a prominent position on the Club premises.
- (b) Notice of each general meeting must be posted on the notice board at or before the time provided in the rules or the Act for the giving of notice of the general meeting to which it relates.
- (c) Notice of a general meeting must state the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (d) Posting of a notice of a general meeting on the notice board is in addition to and not in substitution for the giving of notice of a general meeting as provided for in the rules or the Act.
- (e) Fourteen days before the annual general meeting the secretary must post on the notice board all nominations then in the secretary's hands for all elected positions that will fall vacant at the annual general meeting.
- (f) The Management Committee may post notices, other than notices of general meetings, on the notice board as it sees fit.
